La Luna

Jim Brickman

I remember when I met you
All the stars were hanging in mid-air
In these moments - nothing mattered
But the way you caught me in your stare
We were walking - we were talking
We were laughing about the state of our lives
How our fates brought us together
As the moon was rising in your eyesOn and on the night was falling
Deep down inside us
On and on a light was shining right through
Ah La Luna La Luna
The night that we fell under the spell of the moon
Ah La Luna La Luna
The light that will being me back to you
The light of La LunaIn the hotels, in the cafes
All the world was made with romance
In the harbor moonlit water
All the ships were swaying in a dance
Then you held me and you kissed me
And I knew I had to be with you
You didn't ask me you just took me to the tiny bed in your tiny roomOn and on the band was playing
A song of surrender
On and on the sun would soon break thru
Now I walk along the streets of Marseilles the winter sky is cold and gray and I don't know why I left you that day
And I don't know where you are
