

Why

Mary J Blige

[Mary J Blige]I've been logging in my bed, crying til my eyes are red

We both said that things will change

But it's still the same shade of gray

I get mad you walk away

When it all just start to fade

I know you're fed up so am I

But we just can't say goodbye

Boy, you know I love

But I just can't go on no more

Feelin this way

[Chorus]You got me sayin' why, why, why?

Can't we get it right?

Just can't get it right

Don't know why, why, why?

Can't we get it right

No matter how hard we try

[Rick Ross]I got her looking at me sideways

Live every night like it's a Friday

My conversations are so monumental

Licking on her ear, I'm whispering a couple riddles

She fell in love with my technique

I made her call me boss when in the bedsheets

We both coming from the same place

All in her both coming at the same place

Still on my dope boy swag

Top down on my Cam'ron, Oh boy swag

Played the hand we were dealt from the beginning, baby

You the dealer, cut the deck, while we winning baby

[Chorus]Got me sayin' why, why, why?

Can't we get it right?

Just can't get it right

Don't know why, why, why?

Can't we get it right

No matter how hard we try

[Mary J Blige]Can't we turn love around

We build it up to break it down

If you knew the way I feel

You would know that this love is real

But live in heaven, go to hell then
Go right back, across the lesson
Tired of stressin', get the message
I can't live in this depression no more
Boy, you know I love you
But I just can't go on feeling like this no more
[Chorus] Got me sayin' why, why, why?
Can't we get it right?
Just can't get it right
Don't know why, why, why?
Can't we get it right
No matter how hard we try
Back on my own again?
