Brick Wall

Spring Breakup

Are you deaf or is it just me?
You're playing games with everyone it's easy to see You've shunned me ever since day one
I thought there was a spark, but now there's none

What do you have against me?
And why won't you listen to me?

Am I talkin' to a brick wall? I might as well be
Everything I say to you comes right back at me
You don't listen to the words that I say
You treat them like trash and you throw them away

Let your guard down and you'll pay the price
Things won't go the way you want, you know it's not right
I'm screamin' you don't care at all, keep stackin' those bricks til the day they fall

What do you have against me?
And why won't you listen to me?

Am I talkin' to a brick wall? I might as well be
Everything I say to you comes right back at me
You don't listen to the words that I say
You treat them like trash and you throw them away

This is just a game to you
To you it's all the same,
win or lose

Am I talkin' to a brick wall? I might as well be
Everything I say to you comes right back at me
You don't listen to the words that I say
You treat them like trash and you throw them away

Am I talkin' to a brick wall? I might as well be
Everything I say to you comes right back at me
You don't listen to the words that I say
You treat them like trash and you throw them away
