The Breakdown (Part 1)

Rufus Thomas

Honey, baby, I been told
You know how, shake the butter bowl
I got to see for myself
If you got any butter leftBreakdown to the left
Breakdown to the right
Breakdown to the one
Gonna love her tonightDo the breakdown, children
Break on down
Do the breakdown, children
Break on downYou got it going, my, my, my
Just look around and grab your guy
Stop where you are, let your big hip rock
Show him how your love can rockBreakdown for me
Breakdown for you
Breakdown to the one
Gonna give it toDo the breakdown, children
Break on down
Do the breakdown, children
Break on down, [Incomprehensible]Come on children, look at me
I'm showing you how it's supposed to be
Do it in the evening, late at night
I'm gonna show you, breakdown is alrightDo the breakdown, children
Break on down
Do the breakdown, children
Break on downListen, it's the brand new dance that's going around
It ain't the 'Funky Chicken', it's called 'The Breakdown'
It's the brand new dance that's going around
It ain't push and pull, it's called 'The Breakdown'Now breakdown, children
Break on down
Breakdown, children
Break on downMama can do it, Papa too
Grandma, Grandpa, they're doing it too
Mama, Mama, just look at Sis
She's in the backyard breaking down like thisBreakdown, children
Break on down
Breakdown, children
Break on down
Breakdown, children
