Relive The Magic...Bring The Magic Home

Reggie and the Full Effect

So you run away, told you all these things
And yet you couldn't stay, wouldn't even stop
To give the time of day and everything I said
Won't make these things okay 'cause all I have to say isGirl, you mean so much to me
I wish that I could make you see
The way you wanted me to be
Is just as easy as one, two, threeAcross the world, so far away
I knew the words to make you stay
Of course it's what I didn't say
Still I knew the words to make you stayYou smile at me and wave to me
I know exactly where and what
I want to be and if I wait for thisSo run away, what were all the times
We could have had that day, everybody knows
That we would be okay, what they say
Should never matter anyway, so all I have to say isGirl, you mean so much to me
I wish that I could make you see
The way you wanted me to be
Is just as easy as one, two, threeAcross the world, so far away
I knew the words to make you stay
Of course it's what I didn't say
Still I knew the words to make you stayGirl, you mean so much to me
I wish that I could make you see
The way you wanted me to be
Is just as easy as one, two, threeYou smile at me and wave to me
I know exactly where and what
I want to be and if I wait for this
