

You

Waterdeep

You cause my heart to sing
You are always listening
You understand my dreams
You doYou cut away my lies
You see through my disguise
You are not so far away from me
As I thought Youd beYou love me as I am
Even when I cannot stand
You whisper in my ear
All the things I need to hear
From YouYou are a mystery
You bring strong men to their knees
You change the hearts of kings
You doYou have names for all Your stars
You heal my wounds and kiss my scars
You sing a million songs over me
