Amitriptyline

John Vanderslice

So long, goodbye, by order of the Pasadena Court
So long, goodbye, 500 milligrams are needed everyday
Held down by a pharmaceutical hand
Are needed everyday, so we can regulate
My uncontrollable urgeRemember me as I was Too much life and oh, too much love
Last week my lastly stunning stunt
Top tier, my jumping chandelierThat's why I'm here
AmitriptylineI was quiet, lunch box lonely little boy
Reading sci-fi, broken tree house on the shore
At nineteen the talking in my head got harder to understand
No work, so school, drifting, a failing satellite
Don't feel sorry for me, I've been happy too
Manic, kindly, blinding, high-res euphoriaRemember me as I was
The clowning judge, the crowning dove
Sad king alone in the western wing
Holding foe's laughing, severed headThat's why I'm here
Amitriptyline
