Ordinary

Antifreeze

I want the most of what life can give to me
Only the best, a life extrordinairy But you're so scared, you push you're doubts on me you put me down, you call me ordinaryToo scared to take a chance yourself, ya critisize everything I do though I may fail, well at least I tried that's more than I can say for you, always ordinary I don't care what ya think, I'm not ordinaryyou know what's best, that's what you say to me it's good advice, you're looking out for me I'm not ordinary, I'm not like anyone else I'll do what I want, I'll get what I need, I can take care of myself!
