Refine Me (feat. Jered Sanders)

Sevin

Sometimes you need to remind me
That I'm always safe in your hand yeahYeah for realAy
No more stressin' Lord on Your blessings I'mma meditate
On a quest for more of Your presence cuz it medicates
From this precipice I'mma levitate
Cuz Ya yoke is easy and Ya burden is light
Like a feather's weight
Uh, I'm tipping the vinyl
I set the record straight
Forever with You it's final
Go 'head and set a date
Your word is incredible when I meditate
It's edible You spread me in vegetables
Let me get a plate
We was 'sleep in the grave
We was weak and depraved
Our sinful deeds had embedded us in this bed of hate
And we received it as slaves
But we believe that He saves
Jesus freed us and lead us into a better state
I'm ill-equipped I admit it
Go 'head and educate
Won't throw a fit
I'm submitted to what You legislate
Yeah
Cuz You are my father and You a Sovereign King
I'mma follow you if I'm ballin or I ain't got a thing
Sometimes You to remind me that
You've designed me by Your own plan
And that's why they can't define me
Cuz You've refined me by Your own hand
Sometimes You to remind me that
You've designed me by Your own plan oh yeah
And they can't define me
Cuz You've refined me by Your own handYeah
Father you parted the seas
Used pardon in Your art in the garden with theives
Used hardening the heart of king
And probably grieved

How it all got at start in the garden with eve
I never feared thee
I was thinkin' You ain't never hearing me
But you've given the guards another earpiece
That's a whole 'nother lesson
And it really
Had it cut it off just to hear You more clearly
Looking to You in the war zone that's televised
Thinkin' the truth is morse code
But hella nice
Trying to reach You before the torch blows
Beretta's fly
And pops were chasin' the dream like Coretta's guy
Looking for hope in every crack in the crevice
Every book that I'm quoting I'm giving maximum effort
Now I'm looking to the cross and for Your last sheep
And ask You what I can't reach
Sometimes You to remind me that
You've designed me by Your own plan
And that's why they can't define me
Cuz You've refined me by Your own hand
Sometimes You to remind me that
You've designed me by Your own plan oh yeah
And they can't define me
Cuz You've refined me by Your own handSometimes I just need You to know
I'm hiding right now
Sometimes I lose sight of You
It ain't right but it's true
I need You and only You
I ain't gon' give no one else my attention, no
I'mma stay right here on my knees
My faith won't be shaken in this season
Lord
I'm always safe in Your plans
