Chris Palser

So sweet
I remember when the want turned into need you came and you gave
and I know
you like it
I believe
you have a gift
you know what I really mean no lie
you know why
and you know I like itfirst your gonna breathe a little softer then you're gonna scream a little louderyour secret's safe I'm amazed that you came back at all
were so brave
til I found out
what you didn't want me to know how do you like me so far how did you make it so hard reason I like you so much is because you know who you aredon't resist don't deny don't be nice don't you even try so bent
know what you meant
and you know I like it every single little thing that I do so I can meet people like you who see
just like me
you know the one's who like itdid I fall back asleep could you hear me
thought you made it
filled with the chill
all the thrill that a body needs and I never knew
could you hear me

you know I waited
never came
all the same
oh babe I could hardly breatheyour secret's safe
you came back at all
because I like you so much won't tell them who you are
