

The Fear Minnox (remix)

Illy Emcee

hook:

blink once, blink twice these eyes see nevermore (x3)

blink once, blink twice,
these eyes are evermore

verse 1:

yo, a fear of the truth a fear of everything that is real a fear of people not understanding the way i feel a fear of death
a fear of living life too fast a fear of looking back and despising my past
a fear of life's play that scars scars last forever
a fear of love
a fear of achieving so much better thoughts swarm
but yet it's hard to keep control a fear of the untold a fear of the unknown

chorus:

thoughts, pressure, anxiety, the fear
(blink once, nevermore)
(blink twice, nevermore) (x2)

verse 2:

yo, is it too much to ask to sedate these thoughts revealed? a fear of the second hand in every minute concealed can i give too much?
and not receive in return?

yo, no matter what the punishment is i'll still find it hard to learn my conditioning has produced a hard shell so i take an extra second between every breath inhaled i hold them close but not too close they'll see my secrets a fear of telling the truth and leaving everyone speechless a fear of not being accepted a fear of peers with different minds a fear of someone actually appreciating these rhymes success brings a cost, alone i can't afford a fear of wasting my time in class a fear of being unemployed a fear of alcoholism
a fear of genetics
a fear of an early death, yo it seems to be heretic a fear that this track might capture my soul a fear of being sheltered from what life has to unfold chorus (x4)
