The Nixons

I'm a man, I'm a man who believes in, believesI'm a king, I'm a queen, I'm the force there
I'm the only will I lie
You're the face that I see when I'm far away
You're the place I will returnI won't leave you there
I won't leave you there
I'll keep you deep inside
I'll keep you in my mind
I won't leave you thereIn the time and the space that's allotted us
I only give you everything
This life, inside you begin, we begin to seeI won't leave you there
I won't leave you there
I'll keep you in this song
When everything is gone
I won't leave youI'm a man, I'm a man who believes in, believesI won't leave you there
I won't leave you there
I'll keep you in this song
When every thing's left, every thing's gone
I won't leave youI'm a man, I'm a man who believes in
A man who believes in loves you
I'm now, I'm then, I'm the future
I'm the shadow in your sunI won't leave, I'll never leave you
Only believe, only receive, it's hard to believe
I don't believe in anything, everything
I won't kick, I won't screamI'm a king, I'm a queen
I'm only everything
I'm a man, I'm a man who believes in
A man who believes inI'm a man, I'm a man who believes in
A man who believes
I'm a man, I'm a man who believes in
A man who believes
