

You Are Loved

Martin Halla

When the world takes you apart
Walking for hours to lay down your heart been loving to large but you can't start
When youâ€™re already old

I could open your eyes away from the dark and
Catch as the light as it sparkles for eyes and
How can you feel so alone in this world when
I promise youâ€™re not alone

You are loved, you are loved, you are loved
And it's a lot to love
You are loved, you are loved, you are loved
And it's a lot to love

When you sitting your bedroom
Closing your eyes, donâ€™t know what will become of you
And itâ€™s not that youâ€™re empty
Itâ€™s that all that you need, itâ€™s somebody

I could open your eyes away from the dark and
Catch as the light as it sparkles for eyes and
How can you feel so alone in this world when
I promise youâ€™re not alone

You are loved, you are loved, you are loved
And it's a lot to love
You are loved, you are loved, you are loved
And it's a lot to love

And water falls of pain
Drip outside your window like tears that you canâ€™t train
So you rub your fingers down your lovers spine
She might say

You are loved, you are loved, you are loved
And it's a lot to love
You are loved, you are loved, you are loved
And it's a lot to love

You are loved, you are loved, you are loved
And it's a lot to love
You are loved, you are loved, you are loved
And it's a lot to love
