

Amaranthine

Crowbar

Promise me you'll be there when I die.
Give me peace, before I close my eyes.
Cleansing a forgotten soul.
Comfort from the bitter cold.
Just take my hand, and guide me through the dark.
Learn to trust what trust was never real.
Far beyond the things I used to feel.
Blackness turns into light, never fading into night.
Just take my hand.
I'll never walk alone.
I'll never walk alone.
I'll never walk alone.
