

Boundaries of Hell

This Ending

A deep rooted evil, nothing but gain
There's only one world, the one filled with pain
Evident outcome, discarding of the weak
Exploit and torment, creating dependency
A last stream of hope, keep it in sight
Prolonging the pain
This is the dream of the mentally depraved
A tortured existence, raise the guillotines
Assemble the mass, fed up with boundless torture
There's strength in numbers, bring them to their knees
Reverse the balance, enjoy their panicked screams
Unknown ways to pain, guided by man
Connect the assailant to receive a concentrate of guilt
Stealing faith, grinding bones
Bending rules bring control
Robbing us of will, feeding the urge to kill
Torment beyond the Boundaries of Hell
Beyond the Boundaries of Hell
Experience all pain and suffering amassed
The collected wrath and deceit of the bereaved
Ask not for leniency, beg for death
We will prevail, we shall not fail
Death comes not swift, this is our dream
We will wreak havoc until the end
Stealing faith, grinding bones
Bending rules bring control
Robbing us of will, feeding the urge to kill
Torment beyond the Boundaries of Hell
Beyond the Boundaries of Hell
Til the corrupted heart gives out
Beyond the Boundaries of Hell
