

You Are Loved (Hisboyelroy's Funk House Mix)

Rebecca St. James

We were younger then, you and me
Full of dreams, weren't we?
I went my way, you went yours
Where did you go, dear? Someone said, you have left
The life we lived, together then
This is my way of reaching out
'Cuz I remember This is what I want to say to you
If I had one chance to speak to your heart
You are loved more than you could ever know This is what I want to say to you
If I had one chance to tell you something
You are loved more than you can imagine, imagine If I told you, would you believe
The narrow road I did not leave
If I told you would you understand?
That I have found truth Are you cheated? Are you hurting now?
How I wish that I could tell
Where your heart's at
Can you see mine has found home This is what I want to say to you
If I had one chance to speak to your heart
You are loved more than you could ever know This is what I want to say to you
If I had one chance to tell you something
You are loved more than you can imagine, imagine Not sure if I've, made it clear enough
It's not my love I sing about
Everybody asks, Is God good?
I believe He is, in fact, I know He is This is what I want to say to you
If I had one chance to speak to your heart
You are loved more than you could ever know This is what I want to say to you
If I had one chance to tell you something
You are loved more than you can imagine
Imagine, imagine, imagine, imagine
