

Birthday Wish

Greg Laswell

A big bouquet of balloons,
Some green and red and then some blue,
And maybe I'll add a color too,
And find a strong rope and tie them all to you. I'll watch you float like you always do,
And I'll watch you soar like your mother wanted you to,
And I'll watch you deflate like I know you always do,
In front of anyone that has ever loved you. Yeah, this is my birthday wish for you,
For you to fly away on a big bouquet of balloons,
And you know it
A big bouquet of balloons,
Some green and red and then some blue,
And maybe I'll add a color too,
And find a strong rope and tie them all to you. I'll watch you float like you always do,
And I'll watch you soar like your sweet mother wanted you to,
And I'll watch you deflate like I know you always do,
In front of anyone that has ever loved you. This is my birthday wish for you,
You spoiled thing, I hope you get what's coming to you. Don't you know it?
Don't you know it?
Ah
Don't you know it?
Don't you know it?
Ah. Don't you know it?
