Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I've held the knife to my throat for so long
Is it everything I want?
This life feels far away
Is this the time to let go and settle a life below?
Or live another fucking day?
Suffocating in a world of human filth
Yes pull me under
Stop treading in a pool of your own blood
Accept demiseLet it pour
Bleed it out
Feels as the life drains from within
A smile now rips open and paves a way in my sinI feel Beelzebub inside me
He's been here all along
Clutching every last ounce of sin from these dried up bones
Please strike me down
Fuck me...
I can't repent
By my own hands
I shall bury my own lifeLet it pour
Bleed it out
Feels as the life drains from within
A smile now rips open and paves a way in my sinMy only love is worlds away
Thy father bless her and repay the breath they stole with all my hate
I drift away now in my sinLet it pour
Bleed it out
Feels as the life drains from within
A smile now rips open and paves a way in my sin
