Broken Records

This body, that I know
Comes to me at night when I am alone
When I am aloneIt wraps around the empty parts
A familiar smell, confirms what I already know what I already knowSo come on and leave me, I know that it's through These thoughts that I'm having are too hard to lose
That I made a mistake, I don't know why I left
So please, let me come homeSomethings are better
They remain unindulged and remain left unsaid
When they stay left unsaidSo take a walk and you'll clear your head
Anywhere but here might shut out the ghost
Might shut out the ghost
Might shut out the ghostSo come on and leave me, I know that it's through These thoughts that I'm having are too hard to lose
That I made a mistake I don't know why I left
So please, let me come homeAnd I know it was me who carries the blame
And I know it was me that shut out your heart
And I know it was me but I promise I've changedSo please, let me come home
So please, let me come home
So please, let me come home
So please, let me come home
So please, let me come home
