Synops

Karnivool

Is it possible to know if I'm telling a lie?
It's treading with a piece
A piece that I can not hide
It's running with a smile
It's better than the last time that I tried
So sing it with your soul
It's coming and it's never late
When I come home
Egotistical, egotistical, ego fall
Egotistical, egotistical, ego fall below
Egotistical, we know, we know, we know
Is it possible to know if I'm dead or alive?
It's treading with a piece
A piece that I can not hide
It's running with a smile
It's better than the last time that I tried
So sing it without soul
And it's coming, it's never late

When I come home
Leave no light on for me
Leave no light on, this war, it rages in me
Leave no light on, this war, it rages in me
Leave no light on, this war, I fear it won't end
Leave no light on, this war, rages
It's running with a smile
It's better than the last time that I tried
So sing it with your soul
And it's coming, it's never late
When I
It's running with a smile
It's better than the last time that I tried
So sing it with your soul
And it's coming, it's never late
When I come home
Help me, I need light
