The Fever [x2]

She don't know what she's talking about

    Yeah, she's running on empty

She an't sing, she just screams and shouts

    Yeah, she's running on empty

She can't feel for the second choosing

    To live her life without you

She'd be the one to - she'd be the one to

    Try and find what I'm after

B. She don't know what she's talking about

Yeah, she can't sing, she just screams and shouts

C. He thinks it's easy

    But it's not easy

    Because without him

        My heart is empty

        He thinks it's easy

        But it's not easy

        Because without him

            My heart is empty

She don't know what she's talking about

    Yeah, she's running on empty

She an't sing, she just screams and shouts

    Yeah, she's running on empty

She'd be the one to say 'I don't know

    I don't know anything about you'

    But she can't live - she can't live -

        She can't live without you

She don't know what she's talking about

Yeah, she can't sing, she just screams and shouts
