

Children On Parade

Colin Hay

All the girls and boys are gone away
They never really had much to say
They took off all their clothes and their shoes
Politely asked to be excused They're the children on parade
They have secrets that they share
They're the children on parade
And nobody knows, nobody knows All the broken toys lie on the floor
There's no more laughter from down the hall
Mirror, mirror, mirror on the wall
Whatever could have happened to them all? To the children on parade
And all the secrets that they share
They're the children on parade
And nobody knows, nobody knows All across the world, just yesterday
All the girls and boys just went away
They took off all their clothes and their shoes
I'd love to someday hear all the news About the children on parade
And all the secrets that they share
They're the children on parade
And nobody knows, nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows
