Gotta Get You

Tyrese

Damn
I got something to tell you
Listen
You know that I like it baby, I don't try to hide it baby
You be tryna fight it baby, but wassup, wassup?
It's so hard to take it baby, you say it's the matrix baby
Why we gotta fake it baby, ooh, wassup, wassup?
You let the little things
Like the fact that I make mistakes
Get all in between
What I wanna do with ya, where I wanna take ya, baby
You say that I'm pressed
And that I've had my chance
I say it's comeback
That's how I know I gotta get it
I gotta make you understand what I'm feeling
And girl I should be your man
And you know that the boy ain't playin' 'round
And I'll go that extra mile just to put you down
But you don't get it so I gotta make you see
That you're winnin' if you get on my team
And you know that the boy ain't gonna change
Till I get it, gotta get it, baby just let me get it
Now when we talk, it never fails
You always wanna talk about how I got a girl
How I be here and there
We always going round and round
But if you gonna talk, let's talk about
How when you need me I'm always around
How it ain't nothing for me to say yes to you
Play games like the rest of these niggas do
Baby all I'm tryna say to you is
I adore everything about you, please believe me
You say that I'm pressed
And that I've had my chance
I say it's comeback
That's how I know I gotta get it
I gotta make you understand what I'm feeling
And baby I should be your man

And you know that the boy ain't playin' 'round
And I'll go that extra mile, girl, I'll go that extra mile
But you don't get it so I gotta make you see
That you're winnin' if you get on my team
And you know that the boy ain't gonna change
Till I get it, gotta get it, baby just let me get it
There's no need for trippin', how can it be wrong
To make the right decision, it's clear where you belong
Right here where you're treated like the best thing ever
And you never have to worry
Think about yourself I'm right here beside you
Girl I want what's best I'm around to guide you
Guide you where you need to be, yeah
I gotta get it
Gotta make you understand what I'm feeling
That I wanna be your man
And you know that the boy ain't playin' 'round
And I'll go that extra mile just to put you down
But you don't get it so I gotta make you see
That you're winnin' if you get on my team
And you know that the boy ain't gonna change
Till I get it, gotta get it, baby just let me get it
You gotta, gotta get it
Gotta get it, gotta get it, yeah
I gotta get it, you know
I mean I'd do whatever it takes
