Tiger Army

let's go! i seen this girl walking down the street and i noticed something just ain't right. she shouldn't be walking away from me, should be standing right here by my side. just wanna, wanna hold ya baby. just gotta, gotta, gotta, gotta make you mine. see her again on another day. and she's walking around with him. don't you know hunny that i'm nick13 and i can give you what he never can. and i said, see that girl gone and brake'n my heart. it just ain't right that i'm all alone. go, go, go! i just wanna, wanna hold ya baby. just gotta, gotta, gotta, gotta make you mine. ??? cause every cat has his day. ??? but now things are fine cause i'm a tough cat and i'm on my way. said baby girl take you into my arms, poor little girl won't you play with my heart. go, go, go! ??? gonna make you mine. that's right!
