

Dragons and Fables

Hawkwind

I am the child of wars never won
Take heed prisoner I am the one
Your battle is over before it's begun
For a child on the run I am free
Many tournaments fought in this land
Flying banners now dashed in the sand
The colours you wear will not keep me
For a child on the run I am free
The courts and knights of the table
Bold stories of dragon and fable
Your sword is red-stained I can see
For a child on the run I am free
Silks, satins, riches in plenty
Acres of land, four and twenty
I am not you, I am me
For a child on the run I am free
