Northern Lites

Super Furry Animals

Born in a manger, you're getting stranger everyday
Uncertain chancer, you're sending everything astray
You're certain danger, you're a monsoon and a fire all in one
Got me on the runThere's a distant light
(Distant light)
A forest fire burning everything in sight
(Easy flight)We pick it up in space with survey satellite
(Survey satellite looking at you)
You're turning every modern theory on it's head
(Survey satellite looking at you)
Leaving me for deadYou're so demanding, you've got me fumbling for escape
I'm understanding, but I'm afraid it's all too late
To find a meaning, you're blowing everything away
From coast to coast, got me much too closeThere's a distant light
(Distant light)
A forest fire burning everything in sight
(Easy flight)We pick it up in space with a survey satellite
(Survey satellite looking at you)
Your turning every modern theory on it's head
(Survey satellite looking at you)
Leaving me for deadDon't worry me or hurry me
Blow me far away to the northern lites
Don't worry me or hurry me
Blow me far away to the northern litesDon't worry me or hurry me
Blow me far away to the northern lites
Don't worry me or hurry me
Blow me far away to the northern litesDon't worry me or hurry me
Blow me far away to the northern lites
Abandon me, abandon me
Blow me far away to the northern litesAbandon me, abandon me
Blow me far away to the northern lites
Abandon me, abandon me
Blow me far away to the northern litesDon't worry me or hurry me
Blow me far away to the northern lites
Don't worry me or hurry me
Blow me far away to the northern litesDon't worry me or hurry me
Blow me far away to the northern lites
