Stronghold

[:SITD:]

Alone again behind the locked door
You're not going out to face the world anymore
Lost inside the loneliness again
You're wondering where true love has beenHiding behind the counterfeit mask
You're thinking of how the happiness won't last
The emptiness has filled the life inside
Hoping that there is a guiding lightChorus
Oh Jesus, there's nothing He won't do
He'll take the pain away to help you through
Oh Jesus, can take you from the cold
His love is the world's strongholdKnowing the truth is waiting in the dark
You're trying to hide the scars from the world's mark
On your knees asking once again
Oh He's looking down ready to come in
