

The King Of All Birds

Aoife O'Donovan

Look out, look out
Here I come now
Fists out
I'm a fighter bird
I'm a harrier hawk
A wild flock
I keep time by the city clock
When the moon is steady
I'll find you I'm not lucky
And I'm not scared

There could be a goldmine anywhere
Anyone that I might want in this world
They're asleep in the arms of another girl
Who will they be when the lights come up?
Everyone that I ever loved in my life
Now calls somebody else their wife
Who am I to you? Get up, get up
Get it together and climb on up
To the top of the tree
I'm an owl now, a lonely owl
Who, who, where, what, why, when
How the hell'd I get this far without you? Pull my feathers on by one
Put'em in your pocket when I'm gone
Anyone that I might want in this world
They're asleep in the arms of another girl
Who will they be when the lights come up?
Everyone that I ever loved in my life
Now calls somebody else their wife
Who am I to you?
Who am I to you?
Am I just anyone?
Am I the only one?
Who am I to you?
Am I just anyone?
Am I the only one? Come on, come on Put me back together, let me soldier on
I'm the king of it all
I'm a little wren
I'm happiest when I hitch a ride on the wing of a friend
Looking down on everything then
When the road gets weary love

Remember who I'm dreaming of
