

This Next Wave Is a Big One

Thomas Dybdahl

From the time that I knew you
'Till the day you withdrew
How time just flew
Like a dream in a dream
Like a rhyme deep within a scheme
We built bridges and crossed them
We found joys
But the tossed them out to sea
Where the whirlpools spin
Secrets buried deep within
Hold on
Hold on
This next wave is a big one
Hold on
In the deep end somewhere
There's a place
For the wonder and the rare
But it's hard letting go
When there's no place else to go
Fall asleep and surrender
To dusty books
And forever tender words
From a time long ago
From a place we'd always know
Hold on
Hold on
This next wave is a big one
Hold on
