

Looking for Home

Just a Band

I-a-a- am looking for my home
Somewhere I can take a break
Somewhere in the sky-yy
I-a-a
Somewhere on the road
This is gonna take a while
Looking for my own homeOne mistake hour
And a moment of weakness my life it was over
One cloud in a very blue sky
On the very last day the storm wasn't over
Breathe in now, breathe out now
I promised I would keep it all together
I fought this but I lost it
A long way from everything I used to beI-a-a- am looking for my home
Somewhere I can take a break
Somewhere in the sky
I-a-a
Somewhere on the road
This is gonna take a while
Looking for my own homeAll this time when the weather was fine
I promised myself I could keep it all a secret
One try for the very last time
Then I'll put it all away and starting on a new day
Breathe in now, breath out now
I promised I would keep it all together
I fought this but I lost it
A long way from everything I used to beI-a-a- am looking for my home
Somewhere I can take a break
Somewhere in the sky
I-a-a
Somewhere on the road
This is gonna take a while
Looking for my own homeI-a-a- am looking for my home
Somewhere I can take a break
Somewhere in the sky
I-a-a
Somewhere on the road
This is gonna take a while
Looking for my own home{I swear I can be home

I swear I can be home
I swear I can be home
I swear I can be home
I swear I can be home
I swear I can be home
I can find my own home} x 2I-a-a
Somewhere on the road
Looking for my own home
