Op Hop Detonation

Stereolab

Suffer you little children
Remain passive and fearful
Suffer don't grow out of it
Revel and let's celebrateThe poor love of this poor world
The sad love, the vampireSuffer you little children
Remain passive and fearful
Suffer don't grow out of it
Revel and let's celebrateThe poor love of this poor world
The sad love, the vampireWe who're young and beautiful
We who can stand up and walk
Our lives we will learn to control
We who're young and beautifulRespond revolution when
We hear the word sufferingIt's our lives we'll learn to control
We who are young and beautiful
Respond the word revolution
When we hear the word sufferingWe who're young and beautiful
We who can stand up and walk
Our lives we'll learn to control
We who're young and beautifulRespond revolution when
We hear the word suffering
