

Just As I Am

Lakisha Jones

I would cry, thought no one loved me
Life was just so unfair
If I died things would be better
Maybe no one would care
All alone this ugly duckling
Hung my head down in shame
Wondered why I was created
Till You called out my name
And Lord, You made me
Just how You wanted me to be
Shapen in the image of You
Had to fight, this was a battle
Going on in my mind
On my own had to survive it
Was this all to my life?
Didn't think I had a purpose
Didn't fit in the crowd
Didn't know You made me special
And then You picked me out
And Lord, You made me
Just how You wanted me to be
Shapen in the image of You
And I'm so thankful
Somebody told me You loved me
And now I'm living my life brand new
Now Lord, You made me
Just how You wanted me to be
Shapen in the image of You
You, You, You, You, You
I'm so, so thankful
Somebody told me You, You loved me
And now I'm living my life brand new
I'm so glad, glad that You love me
And it's just as I am
