

Puppet

Jake Miller

Lately I feel like a puppet, who's been thrown in 15 million different places
Girlfriend's on the phone, the other lone I got my agent
Like hey Jake, got good news, we just booked another tour
Yea that's good and all but that just means another civil war between me and my girl
What am I supposed to say?
Hey baby, how you doin'? I missed you home
By the way I'm bout to leave, ah good
I'm going on a fall tour
But I'll be back before you know it, then I'm all yours
Listen Jake, she'll understand, this is more important
Oh really? You wanna tell her that?
'Cause if I ever did she'd probably kill me
Look I'm sorry Jake but it's done deal, you're leavin' Thursday
And you'll be on the road during Christmas and your birthday
Great, my girl's mad 'cause I ain't there a lot
And now I gotta spend my birthday in the courtyard Mary at Drinkin' up your stress man, you've had a busy year
But this is what you sound good for, this is your career
This ain't a shooting for the weak hearted, Jake I thought you knew
But you're canvassing your dream and having all my life through
If you ain't ready tell me now, I never said that it was easy
Otherwise I'll be in my office, you know where to reach me
Yea, I'm feelin' like a puppet
A goddamn puppet
Being pulled in a million different ways
Man I think I'm bout to break
I'm a puppet
A goddamn puppet
Sick of feeling like a puppet
Sometimes I wanna disappear, all these voices in my head
I'm a, I'm a
Look, hang up with my agent, put my phone down on the table
Five seconds later get a call from my label
Like hey Jake, how you doin'? Tell me how's the album comin'?
We heard your last song and honestly we didn't love it
We don't think it'll make the cut, could've written better verses
Deadline's in a month and now we startin' to get nervous
Stop getting so distracted, start pickin' up the pen
You need more time in the studio, and les time with your friends

'Cause it's crunch time, should be doing nothing but making music
We follow you on Instagram, see everything you doin'
Yea we see you at the beach, at the gym, at the mall
To be honest, doesn't seem like you're working hard at all
A day later I don't even have time to take a shit
I've been working non-stop and I'll be honest, I admit
Sometimes I need a break, this life can drive a man crazy
Especially when your label keeps callin' sayin' you're lazy
Listen Jake, I know it's hard
Sometimes it isn't fun
But if this album tanks, well your career could be done
If you ain't ready tell us now, never said that it was easy
Otherwise I'll be in my office, you know where to reach me
Yea, I'm feelin' like a puppet
A goddamn puppet
Being pulled in a million different ways
Man I think I'm bout to break
I'm a puppet
A goddamn puppet
Sick of feeling like a puppet
Sometimes I wanna disappear, all these voices in my head
I'm a
