

Deep Cuts the Knife (Bob Halligan Jr.)

Helix

Lately, all the nights are all the same
Since you said goodbye
I'm all alone
The only voice is my own
Did you hear me?
Are you near me?
Did you know that I hurt this bad?
Did you love me?
Did you need me?
Whole world just a dream I had
This memory haunts me forever
Better run for my life
Hide from the light
Dark is the night
Deep cuts the knife
No way
I'll get away
Memories here to stay
Deep cuts the knife
Lately, I see your face in everything I do
Sleepless nights I lie in bed just thinkin' of you
I can't pretend
That I don't need you back again
Did you love me?
Did you need me
Well alright, but what's so wrong?
This memory haunts me forever
Better run for my life
Hide from the light
Dark is the night
Deep cuts the knife
No way
I'll get away
Memories here to stay
Deep cuts the knife
I am your slave
Got no defender
You flash the blade
I can't escape

I can't surrender
Run for my life
Hide from the light
Dark is the night
Deep cuts the knife
No way
I'll get away
Memories here to stay
Better run for my life
Hide from the light
Dark is the night
Deep cuts the knife
No way
I'll get away
Memories here to stay
Deep cuts the knife
Deep cuts
Deep cuts the knife
(Deep cuts the knife)
Better run, better run for my life
(Deep cuts the knife)
Oh deep cuts the knife
(Deep cuts the knife)
Oh, memories here to stay
It won't go away
Deep cuts the knife
I am your slave
