

Everybody Wants to Be Loved

Martina McBride

Crash, burn, tell me why don't we learn
Trip, fall, hit another big wall
We just keep on goin' Everybody wants to be loved
By somebody
Everybody wants to be loved
By somebody On, off, keep on findin' we're lost
We push, we pull, I guess we never get full
We just keep on dreaming
And dreamin' and Everybody wants to be loved
By somebody
Everybody wants to be loved
By somebody Its hard, so hard
To build it up and watch it shatter
Its hard, so hard
But its the only thing that matters Oh, everybody wants to be loved
By somebody
Somebody, baby
Everybody wants to be loved
By somebody, by somebody yeah Everybody in the whole wide world
Everybody, every boy and girl
Everybody in the whole wide world
Everybody, every boy and girl
Everybody in the whole wide world
Everybody, every boy and girl
Everybody in the whole wide world
Everybody, every boy and girl
