We Make the Rules

Astra Zero

He's a block away and your so afraid, cuz your body isn't ready for this escapade, but you need it now, god he's almost here,
and this mother fuckers ready to relive your fear

So you dim the lights and you pray to God,
That he's gonna give it up the way he said he would,
Glass of whiskeys out just to calm your nerves,
and a little bit of leather baby never hurts

â€¢â€
Even if I wanna stop
Even if I wanna go
Even if I never wanna see your face again
I know

We ain't never gonna tell Fuckin up this room alone
We tha kinda boys who make the rules up as we go along

â€¢â€
You can be my enemy in public but right now your mine
And now we're gonna let out all our anger
And push the limits

â€¢â€
He's a block away and your so afraid, cuz your body isn't ready for this escapade,
but you need it now, god he's almost here,
and this mother fuckers ready to relive your fear
So you dim the lights and you pray to God,
That he's gonna give it up the way he said he would,
Glass of whiskeys out just to calm your nerves,
and a little bit of leather baby never hurts

â€¢â€
Even if I wanna stop
Even if I wanna go
Even if I never wanna see your face again

I know

We ain't never gonna tell
We tha kinda boys who make the rules up as we go alongâ€¦
