

You Are The Rake

Sufjan Stevens

I never felt so safe
A line I once told her
Warm resting place
Her arm on my shoulder You are the rock, you are the rake
You are the one when I watch myself
You are the rock, you are the rake
You are the one when I watch myself We ran into a cave
When the wars came closer
She turned into a cave
Where it turned colder You are the rock, you are the rake
You are the one when I watch myself
You are the rock, you are the rake
You are the one when I watch myself You are the rock, you are the rake
You are the one when I watch myself
You are the rock, you are the rake
You are the one when I watch myself
