I'm feeling like everythang relevant irrelevant nowadays

I thought I had a chance but now they showing me crime pays

The shit I'm living got me feeling like a old man

I been the H so where I'm fighting for my own man

They told me chill but this anger in my heart steel

My closes niggas turning on me like I'm cartwheel

I never played with disrespect nigga this score is real

If I was plexing and I still woulda fuck out'cha steal

I'm old school I never post up on this sneak shit

That's all in Houston you can miss me with that weak shit

Keep shooting undercover slugs dissing ass niggas

On the hood you bout to be some missing ass niggas

It don't take much to see these niggas out here fake as hell (fuck em)

All they ways goin have a nigga going straight to jail

I read these bitches like the numbers that's working the scale

And tell em being real ain't rated by the way ya sale

You looking for attention I'm about to make em famous

Soon as this shit get in the fan the pussy niggas blame us

I kept it loyal but these niggas loyal to theyself

I did it out of love they only did it for they wealth

[Chorus x2: Young Jeezy]

I got this look look I got this (YEEAAHHH!)

I got this look look I got this (so don't worry)

I got this look look I got this (YEEAAHHH!)

I got this look look I got this (so don't worry)

[Verse 2: Young Jeezy]

All they gotta do is ask I'm writing show niggas (ha ha)

Just to show niggas, that I can show niggas

What else I gotta say you seen my show nigga

And I ain't never been a hater I'm like 'Yo nigga! '

Who's hot who's not I'm like so nigga

See they just warming up I'm hot as coal nigga

Probably why I'm platinum never been a gold nigga

The only thang he ever sold was your soul nigga

And they don't want me getting open I might close niggas

They won't give me no expose I might expose niggas

[Chorus x2: Young Jeezy]

I got this look look I got this (YEEAAHHH!)

I got this look look I got this (so don't worry)

I got this look look I got this (YEEAAHHH!)

I got this look look I got this (so don't worry)

So don't worry
