I'd Do Anything

Melissa Otero

Hola, mi amor
Cuanto te quiero
Tanto te quiero, te quiero y no te tengoIt's funny how everything changed
I look at you knowing we're not the same
It's funny how life takes away innocence
When love should have been there, it was deadI'd do anything to have you back
But there's no such thing as anything
I would wait for you til the end
But I know you would never do it tooIt's funny how life keeps on moving
Another girl has you while I'm still waiting
If I just knew how, what to do
I'd do anything for youI'd do anything to have you back
But there's no such thing as anything
I would wait for you til the end
But I know you would never do it toonanana nanana, oohh
But I know you would never do itI'd do anything to have you back
But there's no such thing as anything
I would wait for you til the end
But I know you would never do it too
