

Is There

Solitude Aeternus

A burning hate that grows
As the one's released from within, within my sphere.
Tomorrow brings only plight
Another day of nothing
"Praise be" to the one, the one that gives. Treasures, only a token of misguidance.
A lie only to be lead and to be followed blindly.
Release the pain
Follow your word.
How can one, one believe
When hell is all that is given Where is the truth
Where is the light
Where is the peace
Where is God
Where is the truth
Where is God
Desires to be
Desires to live Who, who is the God
Forever spinning
Forever dead.
Bent and twisted
A pleasure only you behold.
Make the meager weak.
Love thy god and behold
Praise be Where is the truth
Where is the light
Where is the peace
Where is God
Where is the truth
Where is God
Desires to be
Desires to live Heaven is not far
But tied I go nowhere
Visions of life to be
Are wasted thoughts
And time continually
Beaten and dragged through life Where is the truth
Where is the light
Where is the peace
Where is God

Where is the truth

Where is the light

Where is the peace

Where is GodDesires to be...
