

Creep

Fanatik

Come to me
Baby
Follow my lead
I've a confession to make
It's always been this wayOh I'm playing you for a fool
You fell for every broken rule
I'm doing what I owe to you
It's been a long time coming
And I'm coming for youWhile I
Silently I scream
Inside I
Barely breathe
Silently I screamReflection of my soul
It'll never be the same less, less then jaded, I
Still
Still I've, changedDo you feel
Naive
Did you make me believe
Were you
Decieved
Oh you fell right on your kneesOh I'm playing you for a fool
You fell for every broken rule
I'm doing what I owe to you
It's been a long time coming
And I'm coming for youWhile I
Silently I scream
Inside I
Barely breathe
Silently I screamReflection of my soul
It'll never be the same
less, less then jaded, but
Still
Still I
I've changedYou've got it going on
No way I'll let you stay
You've got it going on
I don't want to see your faceIt's taken all this time
Before

I realized that I Should go
Because I told you so I
Could let it go
Without a fight
It might not be right Reflection of my soul
It'll never be the same
less, less then jaded, but
Still
Still I
I've changed You're not going
No way I'll let you stay
You're not going
I don't want to see your face [x3]
