

Oh baby

Rihanna

Oh, baby, oh, still a long way to go
And hold on if you're losing your way
Oh, baby, oh, still a long way to go
Hold on tighter if you going my waySomeone take this gloom and walk right on Take it some place that I don't go
Tried to push myself but it just holds me backThe stronger I go I'm learning fast to fly away
And I took the blues all in one
I turn around all these smiling all the way to the sunOh, baby, oh, still a long way to go
And hold on if you're losing your way
Oh, baby, oh, still a long way to go
Hold on tighter if you going my waySteady as you go hold your hand in mine
Don't stop if you're moving on
Put your mind into a happy photographAin't no worry at all, I'm getting stronger everyday
It feels so good just to smile, feels just like
I can take a thousand miles in my stride, hey, yeahOh, baby, oh, still a long way to go
And hold on if you're losing your way
Oh, baby, oh, still a long way to go
Hold on tighter if you going my wayOh, baby, oh, still a long way to go
And hold on if you're losing your way
Oh, baby, oh, still a long way to go
Hold on tighter if you going my wayOh, baby, oh, still a long way to go
And hold on if you're losing your way
Oh, baby, oh, still a long way to go
Hold on tighter if you going my way
