

Undone

Claire Tchaikowski

It's getting a little bit colder
And the winter's curling up
Looking over my shoulder to see whether
You have followed or not

Who is by my side
The snow falling down
Who is by my side
There's no-one here at all

Oh ho you lift me up
And I come a little undone

It's getting a little bit darker
And the wind gets through my gloves
Looking over my shoulder to see whether
I am home or lost

Who is by my side
It's all falling down
Who is by my side
There's nothing left at all

Oh ho you lift me up
And I come a little undone
