Unmistakable

Schepe

Anytime, anywhere, any place
You could be anyone today
Maybe I will recognize you on a crowded street
Maybe you?ll take me by surprise
Will you be the one I had in mind?
There?ll come a day when you walk out of my dreams
Face to face, like I?m imagining
Baby, how can I be sure that you?re the one I?m waiting for?
Will you be unmistakable?
People say, I'm watching life through a glass
Desperately waiting on a chance
I know you?re out there holding on, holding out for me
But are we gonna know the time is right?
What if you?re here and I?m just blind?

There?ll come a day when you walk out of my dreams
Face to face, like I?m imagining
Baby, how can I be sure that you?re the one I?m waiting for?
Will you be unmistakable?
How can I know a song I've never heard?
How will I know you for you swear you haven't said a word
How do I know how this will end before we begin
Before we begin
There'll come a day when you walk out of my dream
Face to face, like I'm imagining
Baby, how can I be sure that you're only the one I'm waiting for?
Will you be, will you be
Unmistakable, unmistakable?
