Iâ€™ Alive

Iâ€™ Alive - Josh Rogan

People say that Iâ€™m insane
Take a ride in my airplane
Through a thunderstorm on my motorbike
Take off in the middle of the night
Cross the country all alone
And I never felt more at home
Climb a mountain to get high
Enough to see the other side

Cause Iâ€™m alive
Iâ€™m alive

Loneliness can be overthrown
Let someone in your souls home
No need to be in the dark
A little fuel and a little spark
Holding on to each other tight
Walking into paradise
But down that road you know there ainâ€™t no sign
Analyze and power lines

Cause youâ€™re alive
Youâ€™re alive

Youâ€™re alive
Youâ€™re alive

Crossed the ocean and I crossed my heart
Through the storm of a broken heart
I kept my promises to myself
I wouldnâ€™t do it for anyone else
So when youâ€™re listening to the wind
Iâ€™ll always be whistling
And smiling when I die

Cause I will know I had been alive
Iâ€™m alive

Iâ€™m alive

Youâ€™re alive
