

I'm a Mountain

Sarah Harmer

Well, now how did they get that lady on TV?
Laughing so naturally for a Walmart ad
Is it not as bad as I thought? There's a woman sending poisonous mail
And they caught her now she's sitting in jail
While the weather station forecasts hail
From the tropics Oh, I spent the day in a shopping mall
Through the biggest storm of the century
I'm a mountain, I'm a mountain
Like you said to be The sports man and his double chin
Don't listen to me in this state I'm in Saying things about people that I don't know Well, it's just that way when you get hurt
And the things you need you're made to work
You must decide if you will die or grow Oh, I spent the day in a shopping mall
Through the biggest storm of the century
I'm a mountain, I'm a mountain
Like you said to be
