Delirious

Grace Potter

Can't sleep, I can't resist
The street lights are so persistent
They keep calling out to me
From the dark side of the city
Hey hey, is anybody still awake
Let's make some magic before the day breaks
Don't wanna sleep, it's not mysterious
I just love the way I feel when I, when I getDelirious, deliriousAnd the day turns into night
Turns into day, turns into delirious
Another day turns into night
Turns into day, and I'm still deliriousI never close my eyes
'Cause I don't know what's waiting on the other side
And life's just too good to miss
And that's why I never sleep
I love the way I feel when I'mDelirious, deliriousAnd the day turns into night
Turns into day, turns into delirious
Another day turns into night
Turns into day, and I'm still deliriousAnd I know I'm gonna fall
Into this twisted place
I'm sliding deeper as I override my mind
And I'm delirious (delirious)And the day turns into night
Turns into day, turns into delirious
Another day turns into night
Turns into day, and I'm still deliriousAnother day turns into night
Turns into day, turns into delirious
Another day turns into night
Can't get away from being delirious
