The Devil You Know (God Is A Man)

Face to Face

It's all right
Everything is fine
You live the perfect life
Never one immoral thought inside your mindWhat they say
Does it make you feel ashamed?
Isn't everyone the same?
Does it matter that it wasn't your idea
God is a man
You know for certain
The knowledge in and of itself
Is more than we deserveSo you've tried
And you've made up your mind
Something's still not right
The devil you don't know is still outside
