SWRDSWLLNGWHR

The Limousines

I've got a date, I'm a sword swallowing whore-
I'm burnin' up I'm burnin up so put some water on me.
I'll keep the pace til I'm torn, swollen, and sore,
And sure enough they're turnin' up to drop a dollar on me.We baptised each other in lover's spit,
I'm burnin up I'm burnin up so put some water on me.
Well even if we found love, what would we do with it?You'd better run run run, and tell someone,
You found a wishing well-
The bottom of a barrel of a gun.
You'd better run run run, and tell someone....Made my mistake when I came dancing through the door-
I found my faith but I don't want it anymore.
And sure enough I've given up,
No one could ever love me.When fast times take over and run with this-
I'm burnin up I'm burnin up so put some water on me.
Don't even try to slow down, You'll just ruin it.You'd better run run run, and tell someone,
You found a wishing well-
The bottom of a barrel of a gun.
You'd better run run run, and tell someone....
(x2)You've found a wishing well!
You've found a wishing well---el--l----oh!
You've found a wishing well...
You've found a wishing well....
A wishing ...Well!I'm burning up I'm burning up up up up... (x2)
I'm burning up so put some water on me.On me. On me.
