Around Again

Ought

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Turn your light on, off again
You know you shouldn't but then again
Just when you're calm you're not
You're stuck in a rut
You get the feeling you're wasting your time
Whole generation's lost anyway
And what's worse it gave it awayGo slow, go slow [x2]Turn your light on, off again
I know I shouldn't but then again, well
Hey friend, you got a mansion but wish you had a song
Hey friend, you're a poet and you knew it all along
Every nights like sleeping with a stone in your bed
Yeah there are somethings you can't push awayGo slow, go slow [x2]I'm coming up, I'm coming up
But then a feeling creeps up again
Yeah it's coming and it's comingOkay I get it I know where you want me but What's in it for me? I'm looking for something
Look at my hands, my chest, my face
I'll take a ride I don't care where it's goingTurn your light off, on again
Yeah there's something up ahead
And it's coming, yeah I hear it
Yeah it's coming, yeah it's comingWhat about this is natural, what's wrong with being wrong?
What the hell would right even look like?
Every night it's like sleeping with a stone in my bed
There are somethings you can't push awayWhatever's calling forget it I lost it
Too much of nothing this is how I found it
All that I'm reading is baseless, lying
Everyone around me shouts take, take, take, take, orGo slow, go slow [x2]It's coming, it's coming
I hear it, it's comingWhy is you can't stare into the sun but you can stick your head into a bucket of water and breathe in deep?We have reached the intermission
We have reached the intermission
And the lord is in attendance
And the lord is in attendanceWe have reached the intermission
We have reached the intermission

And we can ask him all our questions
And we can ask him all our questions
I know I willLike are we halfway there yet?
Or are we lost forever?
Are we lost forever?We have reached the intermission
And there is time to ask our questions
Like have we lost the rhythm?
Yeah have we lost the rhythm?Are we halfway there yet?
Is it the same distance forward or back again?Or are we there already?
Are we there already?
And we've just lost the rhythm
Yeah have we lost the rhythm?Can we wake up and start again?
Have we lost the rhythm?
